Alpha Center for Divorce Mediation Names Christine Lombardo-Zaun, Esq., MBA as Attorney-Mediator for Lehigh Valley Office

Philadelphia, PA, August 2017 — The Alpha Center for Divorce Mediation has named Christine Lombardo, Zaun, Esq., MBA as attorney-mediator for their Lehigh Valley office. Lombardo-Zaun earned her Doctor of Jurisprudence from The Dickinson School of Law of the Pennsylvania State University in 2010 and also holds an MBA from Penn State as well as a BSBA in Business Administration and a BA in Speech Communication from Shippensburg University. Christine is also an associate tenure-track professor at Cedar Crest College where she teaches several courses, including business and employment law and negotiation. She is licensed to practice law in both Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

According to founder Keila M. Gilbert, Esquire, “Christine brings extensive experience and expertise to the Alpha Center for Divorce Mediation. She is an especially good match for Alpha Center, having operated her own dynamic practice in the Lehigh Valley and working as a tenure-track assistant professor at Cedar Crest College. As the attorney-mediator dedicated to our clients in the Lehigh Valley, Christine is great fit for our unique interdisciplinary approach which ensures that every aspect of each client’s divorce mediation process is handled at an exceptional level of expertise and compassion. Alpha’s 7-Step Divorce Mediation Program™, includes a team of professionals — attorneys, therapists and financial counselors who help people chart a course through the divorce mediation process that leaves them in a position to start a new life. And beyond that, we offer resources to help them navigate the challenges of post-divorce life and remarriage decisions.”
